Dear [Redacted]

As you step aside from your monitorial duties with FBIS for the second time in your long and eventful career, let me take this opportunity to express on behalf of FBIS and all of those American staffers you have worked with over the years, our heartfelt gratitude for your loyal and distinguished service.

Although we have never met personally, all those I have talked to about you have been universal in their affection, admiration, and respect for your loyalty, dedication, and professional competence. My own personal reaction to this is that it takes a very big man to command that level of warm sentiment. My personal congratulations to you.

Sincerely,
